NAIDOC Art Exhibition 2024

Artist Application Form

The Blue Mountains Aboriginal Culture and Resource Centre, in partnership with and the Blue Mountains Cultural Centre, will be hosting “Fire Within”. An exhibition to celebrate NAIDOC 2024. The theme for NAIDOC this year is “Keep the Fire Burning! Blak Loud and Proud”.

The exhibition will run from 29 June until 11 August 2024.

This exhibition is open to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists from the Blue Mountains. Applicants may submit up to 2 works for consideration. How many works each artist may exhibit will be determined by the number of artists participating and size of the works. Which works, as well as how many are chosen, will be the decision of BMARC in consultation with the Blue Mountains Cultural Centre.

Artists must submit their application forms, along with a clear photo of the artwork/s, by the submission deadline. Artists will be notified which works have been selected for the exhibition once the assessment process is complete.

By default, artworks will not be for sale in the exhibition, but any artists wishing to make their art available for sale may opt to do so. For any artworks that will be available for sale, the Cultural Centre will hold copies of a price list at their reception area for any prospective buyers. ACRC will receive 15% commission for any sales made, with the rest of the proceeds going to the respective artist.

Applications close 4pm 02/06/2024 and can be submitted via:
